

REBECCA FETTERMAN

Rebecca@copperleaffinancial.com

Rebecca is an Associate Wealth Advisor with more than 14 years of customer service experience including the finance industry. She provides extensive support to Copper Leaf's clients and works closely with the financial planning team to provide operational and administrative assistance. Rebecca plays a key role in Copper Leaf's mission to provide clients with timely, personalized retirement and investment planning services. She lives in Richmond, Vermont with her husband Dylan and sons Ryder and Lincoln. In her spare time, Rebecca is an avid gardener and enjoys spending time with her family.